

Higher Diploma in Theological Studies 2022-2023

Programme Director: Fr. Neil Xavier O'Donoghue, Ph.D.

This one-year, evening/weekend, Level 8, 65 ECTS credits programme gives a foundation in Theological Studies to students who hold a primary degree in another discipline. This Higher Diploma meets all the Teaching Council of Ireland's Requirements for the teaching of Religious Studies at post-primary level. It entitles teachers holding Department-recognised degrees and teacher training qualifications to teach up to 15 hours' Religious Education per week in a secondary school.

The Higher Diploma in Theological Studies from St. Patrick's Pontifical University Maynooth attests to the completion of a substantial and coherent programme of learning, allowing students to finish an accredited introductory programme in theology and to obtain a credential for it. Other students may use the programme as a gateway to applying to a Master's programme in Theology or Pastoral Ministry either here in Maynooth or elsewhere (students interested in entering a Master's programme are advised to speak with the Admissions Office prior to starting the HDip for further details). Others may be interested in the programme simply as a structured way to approach the big questions in life, giving their personal inquiry a theological shape in the Catholic tradition. Additionally, the Higher Diploma equips graduates to take a more active role in their local church community.

St. Patrick's Pontifical University Maynooth is proud to have the largest faculty of Catholic theology in Great Britain and Ireland. A full range of courses in theological and religious studies are studied in the programme, including:

- A general introduction to theology, giving students the necessary foundations for an academic treatment of theology in accordance with St. Anselm's maxim of "faith seeking understanding."
- Sacred Scripture, which studies the Bible – its nature and significance, origins, literary forms, interpretation today. It will include a study of particular Old Testament and New Testament books.
- The History of Christianity including its origins and contemporary experience.
- World Religions, including the major world religions and their relationship to Christianity. Interreligious dialogue and religious freedom are also included in the course.
- Secular belief systems and how Christianity engages with their challenges and legitimate questions.
- Moral Theology, which deals with the experience of morality and in particular with the bearing of Christian faith on the moral life. Topics include: conscience, making moral decisions, the Bible and morality, bioethics, justice, morality and law, ethics in public life, peace and war and ecology.

- Systematic Theology, which studies the meaning and implications of the principal faith-affirmations of Christianity concerning God, Jesus, the Church, the human condition.
- Foundations of Worship, which provide the student with critical skills in exploring the nature and history of Christian Liturgy
- Foundations in Religious Education, which provides students with an introduction to the meaning, tradition and contemporary practice of religious education with a particular focus both on the teaching of Religious Education at post-primary level, with particular but not exclusive reference to Catholic Education
- The Philosophy of Religion which studies the philosophical debate concerning the existence and nature of God. It also considers the interplay between reason, science and religion.

Admission Requirements

- A primary degree or its equivalent is required. Consideration will be given to all applications;
- University issued or certified copies of official transcripts of results for qualifications must be included with the application. These copies are kept by the University. Copies can be certified/stamped by the relevant institution or by a member of an Garda Síochána, as a true copy of the original: Members of the police, a medical doctor, a member of the clergy, a Lawyer/Solicitor, a School principal/vice principal. Just as long as they're not related to the applicant;
- all credentials in languages other than English must be accompanied by certified English translations;
- Application forms should be completed on the PAC system:
<https://v2.pac.ie/institute/20> ;
- Applicants whose first language is not English will be required to satisfy the English language requirements. See here for more information:
<https://maynoothcollege.ie/english-language-requirements> ;
- Students must provide a digital passport style photograph that will be used in the College's computer system to identify the student to lecturers and other students;
- As this course is delivered in a hybrid manner with much of the content being given on-line, students are required to have basic academic computer skills and have access to a computer and the internet.

Timetable

Students are expected to be available on every Wednesday evening during both semesters from 6.30 p.m. – 9.30 p.m. On Wednesday evenings content will be delivered “live” on an online teaching platform. Students can participate from wherever is convenient to them so long as it has a stable internet connection.

Another 3 hours of self-directed learning will be provided for each week when classes are in session, that can be done whenever in the week it suits the students. Please note that students will be expected to devote additional time to study and working on assignments every week.

Finally, there are 6 weekend residentials (Friday/Saturday), three each semester. This is when the face to face classes will take place and when students have a chance to meet their lecturers and each other. Additionally, it is a good time to take advantage of the many resources that the historic campus offers (and the amenities of Ireland's only university town). Students are not obliged to stay on campus but as part of the programme you can avail of the very competitive discounted room rates provided by the Conference and Accommodations' Office.

The following is the weekend timetable:

Friday

Arrival/check in: 6-6:30 pm;
coffee break 6:30-6:55 pm;
class: 7-9 pm;

Saturday

8:15: Mass (optional);
class: 9-11;
class: 11-1;
lunch: 1-2;
class or library time: 2-3;
class 3-5.

Students are free to leave at 5 pm.

The Pontifical University at Maynooth is located in North Co. Kildare and is extremely easy to get to. It is a 20 minutes' drive (24 km) from Dublin city centre, 5 minutes' walk from the train station and easily accessible by Bus. Many different types of restaurant and food services are available on campus as well as in Maynooth town starting at the gates of the campus.

Students are not obliged to stay on campus but as part of the programme you can avail of the very competitive discounted room rates provided by the Conference and Accommodations' Office.

Rates and information from the Maynooth Campus Conference and Accommodation Office. Early booking is advisable as they are often booked out. Please be sure to mention that you are a student of the HDip programme to avail of the President's Rate for the Friday nights.

The process will entail a review of the student's participation in the programme and his/her ability to satisfactorily complete the award. It is an opportunity for students to identify and address challenges they are facing and receive guidance accordingly.

HDip Module Descriptions 2021-2022³

N.B. These module descriptions are indicative, the individual lecturers may provide updated module descriptions at the start of each module.

In addition to these modules, all students should be enrolled in HDTS 400 HDip Haberdashery. Don't worry, this is not an additional module, but it is a Moodle page where programme announcements and other general information will be posted during the year.

Introduction to Theology

Module Code: TH 401

Lecturers: Rev. Prof. Declan Marmion SM and Rev. Dr. Dr Kevin Hargaden

Department: Systematic/Moral Theology

Module Level: Level 8

Credit Rating: 7.5 ECTS

Aims:

Theology is "faith seeking understanding" (St. Anselm). In this introductory module we will explore this statement by asking such questions as: What is faith? How is the human person a seeker? How are faith and reason (understanding) connected? The etymology of the term "theology" has to do with "theos" (God) and "logos" (discourse). Hence theology is discourse about God. But it is also a discourse about the human person (anthropology) made in the image and likeness of God ("imago Dei") and his or her call to communion with God (spirituality).

Taking the 'human person and his/her acts adequately considered' as its cornerstone, the module seeks to develop a 'Christian ethic within the contours sketched by dogmatic theology' (G. Meilander and W. Werpehowski). The module, moreover, aims to present theology in an integrated way that reflects on the unity of faith and morality in the life of the Christian in the church. The importance of the Bible as a foundational source for Christian conversion and in connecting the drive to goodness and the call to holiness will also be explored.

Indicative Syllabus:

- Theological Anthropology: The Christian Vision of Humanity
- The Specifically Christian Understanding of God as Triune
- The Doctrines of Creation, Incarnation, and Redemption
- Exploring Revelation and its Transmission in Scripture and Tradition

³ N.B. for every Wednesday hour the lecturer will assign one hour of self-directed learning, that the students will complete that week (instead of Mondays the students will have 3 hours of specific tasks in the self-directed learning every week).

- Christ, Covenant, Sin and Conversion
- Bible and Morality
- Theology and Church
- Integrating Theology, Morality and Spirituality

Systematic Theology

The Church and its Sacraments

Module Code: ST 403

Lecturer: Rev. Dr. Tom Surlis

Department: Systematic Theology

Module Level: Level 8 (Undergraduate)

Credit Rating: 5 ECTS Credits

Aims:

- To introduce students to the theological understanding of the Church as it emerges in scripture and as it unfolds in history.
- To demonstrate an ability to critically assess the functioning of the Church today with respect to its origins as found in the New Testament Communities.
- To present the ecclesial vision of Vatican II and the work of contemporary theologians.
- To introduce the students to the sacraments in their ecclesiological context.

- To understand the relations between symbol, sacrament and ritual and how this might help frame contemporary sacramental understanding.
- To explore and assess the impact and importance of Vatican II (and the major theologians of that time) in the development of Sacramental theology.

Learning Outcomes: At the end of the module, the students will:

- Understand the mysterious nature, and our always developing understanding of the Church.
- Recognise the relationship of the Church with the Kingdom of God.
- Appreciate the Church as the universal sacrament.
- Know the key principles of Catholic sacramental theology.
- Recognise the importance of faith in a fruitful celebration of the sacraments
- Identify the issues relating to a more effective celebration of the sacraments in the context of the contemporary mission of the Church in Ireland.

Indicative Syllabus:

- The Origin of the Church
- Church and its relationship to the Kingdom
- Models of Church
- Magisterium, leadership and roles in the Church
- A developing ecclesiology
- The principles of Catholic sacramental theology
- Rite and ritual: a secular-belief/sociological assessment of the sacraments

The Catholic Moral Tradition and Bioethics

Module Code: MR 404

Lecturer: Rev. Dr. Michael Shortall

Department: Moral Theology

Module Level: Level 8

Credit Rating: 5 ECTS Credits

Aims: This module aims to further unpack the Catholic Moral Tradition, culminating with an engagement with contemporary topics in the area of bioethics. It has two aspects. Firstly, it explores foundational issues practical reasoning, guided by the natural law and expressed in concrete, conscientious and communal decision making. Secondly, it will tease out key principles as they relate to contemporary trends and cases in bioethics. The module therefore sits at the intersection of the Catholic Moral Tradition with the field of medicine (bio-ethics) and normative theories of human conduct (bio-ethics).

Indicative Syllabus

- Moral reflection in context
- Ethical Theories

- Natural Law, Conscience and Moral Decision Making
- Key principles in bioethics and healthcare ethics: autonomy, beneficence, dignity.
- Current trends in healthcare: resource allocation, legal developments, cultural changes, codes of behaviour
- Contemporary Topical Issues.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this module, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate a systematic understanding of practical reasoning and a range of ethical theories
- Display a knowledge of the foundational principles in the Catholic moral tradition, including natural law, conscience and communal decision making
- Evaluate and display a critical awareness of current trends and issues in contemporary healthcare, clinical practice and biomedical research
- Apply and appraise various frameworks for dealing with ethical problems, challenges and dilemmas in health care
- Consider the resources proposed by spiritual practices and religious traditions, especially the Catholic tradition.

Church History

Module Code: TS 112

Lecturer: Prof. Salvador Ryan

Module Level: Level 8

Credit Rating: 2.5 ECTS Credits

Aims:

- To provide students with the skills necessary to navigate early sources regarding Jesus of Nazareth.
- To help students appreciate the various stages of development of the Christian Church from the first to the fourth centuries.
- To introduce students to key personalities in the history of the early Christian Church.

Learning Outcomes:

At the end of the module, the students will:

- Have a general knowledge of the relevant historical sources for the life of Jesus of Nazareth, an awareness of their strengths and limitations, and their enduring value for the historian, the theologian, and Christian believers more generally.
- Understand relations as they developed between Judaism and Christianity, two growing “siblings” in the first and second centuries.
- Appreciate how Christians had difficulty integrating into daily life in a pagan empire, and why bursts of persecution, both spontaneous & local, and systematic & empire-wide, erupted from time to time, and what impact this had on the development of Christian identity.
- Recognise the significance of the “conversion” of the emperor Constantine in the fourth century for the subsequent history of the Christian Church.

Indicative Syllabus:

- Sources for the history of Jesus of Nazareth
- Christianity in the first and second centuries: teething problems
- Christians living in a pagan empire: principles and persecution
- Constantine and imperial Christianity

Update to the Higher Diploma in Theological Studies (2022-2023 Academic Year)

Please note the following amendment to the Higher Diploma in Theological Studies Programme for the 2022-2023 Academic year and onwards.

This one-year Level 8 programme gives a foundation in Theological Studies to students who hold a primary degree in another discipline. As this programme is aligned with the National Qualifications Framework it is awarded once 60 credit have been earned on the programme. However in order to meet the Teaching Council of Ireland's Requirements for the teaching of Religious Studies at post-primary level and to apply to them for recognition all modules below with the corresponding 65 credits must be earned. The Teaching Council's requirement is 60 credits in Theology and 5 Credits for Module TS 109.

All students are registered for the full academic load below (65 Credits) upon registration on the programme. But students who are not intending to seek Teaching Council recognition may decide not to take the TS109 module

The final overall grade of the Higher Diploma in Theological Studies is calculated from the best 60 credits as this is the point at which the award is made.
