

St Patrick's
Pontifical University

Study at almost 30 recognised universities

across Europe

Study Abroad for a Year

St Patrick's Pontifical University offers a four-year BATH/BTh International Degree, where the student spends a year studying their subjects (Theology/Philosophy/Arts subjects) at another university in Europe.

Visit sppu.ie/International for more information

With exchange agreements with almost thirty recognised universities across Europe, St Patrick's Pontifical University is actively engaged in the Erasmus+ programme.

You can spend a year in a university of your choosing in Europe to gain valuable life skills and international experience to help you develop personally, professionally, and academically and to succeed in today's world.

Students of St Patrick's Pontifical University who choose to spend a year abroad graduate with a BATH or BTh International, enhancing both their CV and career prospects.

▶ "Going to Salamanca for my Erasmus year proved to be one of the best years of my life. The experience will retain a special place in your heart that will last a lifetime."

Yvonne Myles (Graduate BATH, International) who studied at the University of Salamanca, Spain

▶ "The Erasmus experience is something I would highly recommend. Personally, I chose Munich, Germany. It does take a while to settle in. It is important to give yourself time and everything will fall into place. Your studies will improve, experiencing new cultures, seeing new places. All I can say is, embrace this amazing opportunity! If you are considering it, do your research and go for it! I have no regrets and enjoyed every minute of my time abroad."

Patrick Ó Siochrú, (Graduate BATH, International) who studied at Munich, Germany

Who to contact

Erasmus+ Director

Rev Dr John-Paul Sheridan – E johnpaul.sheridan@spcm.ie

New Cathedral, Salamanca by Santiagova - bit.ly/3GP3cHR / CC BY-SA 3.0 ES

Visit sppu.ie/International for more information