Baccalaureate in Philosophy (BPhil)

Baccalaureate in Philosophy

This programme aims to:

- ✗ Foster knowledge and understanding of key areas of Philosophy and the Christian intellectual tradition
- ✗ Develop the capacity to make informed, evaluative judgements about the arguments, approaches and methods within the different areas of the philosophical and Christian intellectual traditions
- ✗ Foster the skills of clear logical thought and presentation, careful analysis of ideas and imaginative deployment of argument
- ✗ To develop students' ability to fashion thoughts and concepts with precision, rigour and clarity to enable students to assess the source and nature of values
- ✗ Develop appreciation of some fruitful interconnections between Philosophy and other areas of intellectual thought
- ✗ Develop intellectual curiosity and the capacity for independent thought and critical reflection.

Careers

Philosophy graduates have a number of transferable skills, these include:

- ✗ Self-motivation and the capacity for independent study and thought
- ✗ The ability to prioritise work and meet deadlines
- ✗ Flexibility and creativity
- ✗ Critical thinking
- ✗ The capacity to identify, absorb and sift complex information
- ✗ Teamworking
- ✗ Openness to new ideas

Aside from an academic career in philosophy, philosophy graduates typically pursue careers in sales, marketing and related associate professions, including business, research, administration and the finance sector.

Why Study at St Patrick's Pontifical University?

Students at St Patrick's Pontifical University, Maynooth have the best of both worlds. On one hand, they have the attention of a small learning College and, on the other, they have all the resources and excitement of a large university.
